MRS Qualifications

Becoming an MRS Accredited Centre
The Market Research Society (MRS) is the UK professional body for research, insight and analytics. We recognise 5,000 individual members and over 500 accredited Company Partners in over 50 countries who are committed to delivering outstanding insight. As the regulator, we promote the highest professional standards throughout the sector via the MRS Code of Conduct.
Who are we & what do we do

The Market Research Society (MRS) is the UK professional body for research, insight and analytics. We recognise 5,000 individual members and over 500 accredited Company Partners in over 50 countries who are committed to delivering outstanding insight. As the regulator, we promote the highest professional standards throughout the sector via the MRS Code of Conduct.

MRS supports the sector with specialist training and qualifications, professional membership, company accreditation, cutting-edge conferences, glittering awards and advice on best practice.

MRS consults with business and government leaders to ensure that research stays at the forefront of commercial and political agendas. We work on your behalf to ensure the sector stays relevant and recognised.

MRS is also an awarding body for vocational qualifications in market and social research. As part of its responsibilities to assure that the standards of course and/or training provision MRS Qualifications inspects and accredits the courses or programmes offered by a wide range of training providers.

MRS Accredited Centres

There are many MRS Accredited Centres both in the UK and Overseas delivering programmes of learning towards MRS Qualifications.

Our Centres are:
- Large, Medium and Small Employers
- Universities
- Independent Training Providers

MRS accredited centres are required to demonstrate that they meet rigorous standards in their administration, provision and delivery of courses leading to MRS qualifications.
Benefits of MRS Accreditation

- Global recognition by the research sector
- Use of MRS Accredited Centre Logo
- Assists in re-structuring and benchmarking of training programmes
- Improves employee/student recruitment and retention
- Demonstrates professional development commitment to clients/employees/students
- Enhanced progression routes for employees/students through MRS qualifications and Professional Development
- The opportunity to contribute to promoting research as a career and a profession
- Involvement in consultations regarding the future scope and structure of MRS Qualifications
- Access to the exclusive ‘Accredited Centre’ section on the MRS Website
- Training for tutors/assessors associated with the programme
- Invitation to attend Centre Network Events

Becoming Accredited

To be accredited by MRS, prospective centres are required to successfully demonstrate that their programme of learning, either an existing programme or one requiring development:

- maps against the syllabi via a combination of a taught programme and directed learning (e.g. via required reading).
- provides adequate direction for candidates in order to help them complete the required components of assessment.
- provides appropriate facilities for the delivery of assessment, and able to guarantee the security of the assessment process.
- have at least one MRS Member at Associate level (or above) associated with the programme.
MRS Qualifications

Each year over 500 people from over 40 countries demonstrate their commitment to development by studying for an MRS qualification.

Whatever the level of experience, whatever the practice area, qualifications offer a real career advantage. MRS qualifications have been designed to champion and promote standards.

MRS accredits programmes of learning towards the following of its qualifications:

- MRS Diploma in Market & Social Research Practice
- MRS Advanced Certificate in Market & Social Research Practice
- MRS Certificate in Market Research

MRS also offers accreditation of masters programmes, providing professional recognition of the work carried out by those studying on a relevant degree course. On successful completion of the accredited masters programmes and with three years’ relevant research experience students meet the qualification requirement for MRS Certified Membership.

- MRS Accredited Masters Programme
