MRS Member Communications

The Market Research Society processes the information provided by members and applicants for membership to enable it to carry out its activities in accordance with its objectives and for its administrative purposes. Email increases the speed and efficiency of receiving membership benefits and communication, and it is also a great way to become more environmentally friendly.

MRS uses informed consent as the legal bases for communications which are outside of membership, specifically the marketing of our commercial products and services. As an MRS member you will receive regular emails from us about your membership, including information on benefits and governance.

Please Opt in to be kept informed about other MRS activity including awards, reports, conferences and events.

Tick here if you wish to receive MRS Marketing emails

Once you have opted-in, you can customise the content you receive by logging in to your MyMRS account and updating your email preferences.

Your Privacy

MRS respects your privacy. We will always treat your personal details with the utmost care and respect. Your data will never be shared with third parties for marketing purposes. In order to administer your membership effectively, MRS may share your data with data processor suppliers who adhere to our strict data security policy. We have updated our Privacy and Cookies policy. Please take a moment to read through this. www.mrs.org.uk/privacy_policy

Declaration
